

Budgeting Seminar

On April 9, 2013, National Budget Planners proudly presented their seminar on Budgeting. This seminar focused on creating a budget and spending plan based on one's income, expenses, and short-term and long-term goals. National Budget Planners provided the attendees with a nine-step program of booklets to guide them throughout the presentation, and take away the information they gained to use after the seminar.

