

Understanding Credit Seminar

On April 11, 2013, National Budget Planners presented Part Two of their Financial Seminars, held in conjunction with the Tri-Valley Housing Opportunity Center. This presentation specialized on the topic of credit, including information about: different types of credit and a credit score. A table showing different credit report providers and what their credit ranges mean was helpful to attendees wanting to learn more about how to obtain and interpret their own credit score.