

Understanding Credit Seminar

National Budget Planners (NBP) in partnership with Tri-Valley Housing Opportunity Center (TVHOC) presented "Understanding Credit," the final installment of a two-part series of financial education seminars. The class, which was a follow-up to a budget planning seminar, took place on October 10th, 2013 in Livermore, CA. Enthusiastic participants discussed specific credit-related difficulties that they have experienced. The presenter, one of NBP's certified credit counselors, tailored the curriculum to for the needs of the group in order to maximize the overall benefit to the attendees.

Some topics featured in the seminar included FICO scores, how to increase one's credit score, factors that affect one's credit score, and consumer credit rights.
